Scottsdale Sports Bar Runner-Up in National Contest for Raising $10,000 for Phoenix Children's Hospital

PHOENIX, Ariz. (May 31, 2007) – Brennan's, a Scottsdale sports bar, recently served up a winning combination to Phoenix Children's Hospital donating $10,000 to support the Hospital's world-class programs and services.

During the "Brew Something Good 2006" fall promotion, Brennan's appetizer partner Brew City challenged foodservice operators nationwide to raise funds for local charities. Brennan's hosted a golf tournament which raised $5,000 for Phoenix Children's. The tournament earned Brew City's national runner-up prize - an additional $5,000 for Arizona's only free-standing, pediatric specialty Hospital.

"When our owner's grandson, Luke, was born with hemophilia and began treatment at Phoenix Children's Hospital – we wanted to help," said Carrol Mayer, Brennan's General Manager. "Supporting Phoenix Children's was one way we could show our support for little Luke and his family."

Brennan's has another fundraiser on the burner. The restaurant invites the public to participate in their 2007 golf tournament taking place Saturday, Oct. 20, at the Orange Tree Golf Resort in Scottsdale. The entry fee is $90, with proceeds supporting Phoenix Children's. To register call Brennan's at (480) 951-8837 and ask for Carrol Mayer.

Brew City, America's leading brand of beer battered Fries & Appetizers, awarded a total of $25,000 to charities nationwide on behalf of restaurants who participated in "Brew Something Good." The promotion ran from Aug. 1 to Dec. 31, 2006. Participating foodservice operators purchased Brew City products and held an event to support the local charity of their choice, using free merchandising and point-of-sale materials to promote the event. Operators submitted a recap of their event with photos to be considered for the grand prize.
