PCH Golf Tournament to raffle car

One in 1,000 chance to win a new 2006 Hyundai Tucson as part of the 9th Annual Phoenix Children's Golf Tournament

PHOENIX, Ariz. (Nov. 5, 2007) – You don't have to be a golfer to participate in this year's Phoenix Children's Hospital Golf Tournament. Organizers of the event are raffling off a new 2006 Hyundai Tucson, and tickets can be purchased on line at www.pchgolf.com.

Entries are $20 each, or six for $100. Only 1,000 tickets will be sold. The drawing will be held during the awards banquet that will follow the tournament on November 16 at the McCormick Ranch Golf Club. The winner does not need to be present to win.

“This is a way people can support Phoenix Children's Hospital and our golf tournament, even if they prefer not to golf,” said Steve Schnall, vice president, Phoenix Children's Hospital Foundation. “We're so appreciative of Hyundai Motor America for donation of the car, as well as the other sponsors of the event that make this golf tournament such a success each year.”

The PCH Golf Tournament is one of the Hospital's signature fundraising events, having raised more than $1.6 million for Phoenix Children's over the past eight years. This year's tournament will be held on the Pine and Palm Courses of McCormick Ranch Golf Club, located at 7505 E. McCormick Parkway in Scottsdale.

Members of Arizona State University's Men's and Women's golf teams will serve as caddies for many of the tournament's major sponsors, including VESTAR, Stewart Title & Trust of Arizona, Adolfsen & Peterson, and Outback Steakhouse.

This year's tournament will include lunch, dinner, a "Big Hitter" show, and a silent and live auction. The 19th Hole Party and Awards banquet will feature food from Outback Steakhouse and winemaker for R.H. Phillips, Barry Bergman, who led the development of the winery's four brands: Toasted Head, EXP, R.H. Phillips and Kempton Clark. There will also be a margarita bar presented by Tequila Heradura, and a chance to win a half carat diamond at the Moda Fina Mystery Bag booth.

For questions regarding the tournament or raffle, please call the Phoenix Children's Hospital Foundation at (602) 546-4483.
